

An Overview of Families First (Early Help For Families) - Chris O'Connor - 11:00-11:30

This is the team who are our main contact for advice and support during our delivery periods. Have you any experiences of using this service that you can share with us?

We have a good relationship with Families First worker but I think that is more about the individual than the organisation. I know other organisations that don't feel the same